Dear Bill,

I have checked and find that there is no English edition of the Selected Works of Kim Il Song. However, attached is a list indicating the individual speeches which he has given and which are available in English. If you will check the ones you want, we will make copies and send them to you posthaste.

We had a most interesting session with Ray, Joe and others, and I believe have embarked on a much smoother course of relationship with your old outfit. I am going down there next week for the usual and hope to get a chance to look in on Joe. It certainly was a shame about his accident and we are all hoping and praying that he comes out all right.

With very best wishes,

Sincerely yours,

Dear Kirk —

Would it be asking too much for you to dip into your vast archives to find me an English copy of the Selected Works of Kim Il Song? I need this material for my wedge driving tactics at Panmunjom.

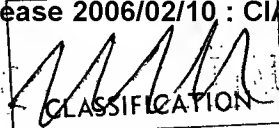

I hope you still visit Ft Bragg and that the liaison with them has turned out right.

This fighting front is anything but the stable, fait accompli I had imagined it to be.

My best to you and the fine people around you.

Sincerely

Bill
